* J. The Director of Security and other Security managers met with four senior representatives of the General Services Administration on 20 December in order to work out details on the expeditious and orderly transfer of Federal protection responsibilities from GSA to CIA. This was a follow-up session to the meeting between the DCI and the GSA Administrator. Preliminary indications suggest the transfer of ☐ Federal Protective Officer slots, and work has begun on the development of a Memorandum of Understanding on the overall issue.

* K. Our Security Education Group, with extremely strong support from the Office of Training and Education, has developed a 28-minute film on Personnel Security, which was recently shown to the Office of Personnel recruiters during their Headquarters conference. Preliminary feedback on the film is quite good.
